Dear Parents and Carers,

Well the 'Beast from the East' definitely came last week! We all had an unexpected snow day! I'm sure the children enjoyed playing in the snow

VIRTUES

The new virtues this half-term are intentional and prophetic. Intentional in the way we live and use the earth's resources and prophetic in the example we set to others

These children were chosen by their class teachers:

WELL DONE!

ATTENDANCE

Our attendance this week was 94.4%. The class with the highest attendance was Y3 with 98.6%. Well done!

OFSTED

As you know we were visited by Ofsted this week. Their judgement on the school is confidential until the official report is published in a couple of weeks' time. The children were excellent throughout their visit and a real credit to you all. Our visitors were very impressed with them.

SWIMMING

Y3 continued their swimming sessions this week. Miss Foster and Mrs Sharpling were delighted with their progress – 20 of them gained their 25m award! Well done! Today is a special fun day for them to end their two week session

OWN TOP DAY

Children and staff came in this morning looking very colourful in bright sparkly tops! All the money raised will go towards our chosen charities.

WORLD BOOK DAY

It was so disappointing to miss our World Book Day last week. I know that lots of children were looking forward to wearing their outfits. We are going to have a 'World Book Day Disco' next Thursday afternoon and all the children can wear their outfits!

CONFIRMATION

Eleven children from Y6 will be confirmed next Thursday at St Joseph's parish church. They are well prepared and looking forward to the day. Please keep them in your prayers.

LUNCH-TIME AWARDS

During lunch time the children are given a raffle ticket by a Lunch-time supervisor for good behaviour. This raffle is held every week and was won this week by:

Y1	Alexia	Y2	Kye	Y3	Oliver
Y4	Corey	Y5	Kwaku	Y6	Taylor S

A GOOD READ

This week's book has been recommended by Lacey in Y1 – the book is 'Dora's Costume Party' by Christine Ricci. Lacey said, 'I like the dressing up'.
